

Practicalities and Possibilities!

Person centred thinking and planning
with older people

Your opportunity to hear the important lessons learned, talk directly to people who have been making changes, and to be part of themed practical sessions.

The conference will launch the new Practicalities and Possibilities materials capturing these lessons and examples of 'what works' for older people, services and organisations.

Thursday 19th March 2009
Holiday Inn London Regents Park

Registration and coffee from 10.00am

Conference: 10.30am to 16.30pm

CONFERENCE CHAIR:

David Brindle, Public Services Editor, The Guardian

Workshops will include

- Introducing person centred thinking with older people.
- Best practice in support planning with older people.
- What 'co-production' with older people really means.
- Taking a strategic approach to person centred thinking and ageing.
- Delivering personalisation with older people.
- Person centred approaches and mental health in later life (including dementia).
- Person centred thinking for health and health care services.

Costs

Statutory bodies (Local Authority, NHS, Government Departments, Regional Government Offices, Statutory or Private Companies) = £180.00 plus VAT (£207.00).

Voluntary bodies (non-statutory organisations, voluntary and not for profit organisations, and charities) = £100 plus VAT (£115.00).

Who should attend?

Commissioners, providers and practitioners from Local Authorities (Social Care, Housing, Learning and Leisure, Transport, Culture and Media).

NHS organisations (PCTs, Hospital, Foundation and Mental Health Trusts).

National, regional and local leads involved in transforming services to improve outcomes for older people (e.g. strategic commissioners, transformation/personalisation leads, policy leads on dignity, dementia and Putting People First).

Local support and service providers including statutory and voluntary organizations across all public and private services including home care and care homes.

Older people, their families and friends who want to take or regain control over their lives.

OLDER PEOPLE'S PROGRAMME

Centre for Policy on Ageing

CPA
New attitudes to old age..

hnsa
helensandersonassociates

To register for this event please go to https://secure2.symphonyem.co.uk/Practicalities_Posibilities/
Any queries? Contact Max Jones on 0845 3033335 or max@hsaevents.com