

A CREATIVE EXPLORATION OF AGEING ACROSS OUR LIVES

Hear, discuss & create! Are you an artist? Have you thought about ageing?

We are inviting artists of all ages, photographers, poets, musicians, dancers, writers, film makers, to join us to explore, provoke and re-position thinking and understanding about ageing.

The University of Kent and Centre for Policy on Ageing are looking to develop a new perspective on ageing from an artist's point of view.

This workshop will provide an opportunity to learn and discuss how we think and define age and the ageing process. There will also be an opportunity to playfully create and reflect upon ageing "in our time".

Help us develop an arts approach to ageing!

Saturday 21 July 2018, 10.00-16.00
Free to attend, lunch and refreshments provided
Keynes College, University of Kent, Canterbury campus

Book your place on Eventbrite or contact the organisers
Dave Martin, DaveMartin@cpa.org.uk
Hannah Swift, H.J.Swift@kent.ac.uk
Hannah McDowall, hannahmcdowall@gmail.com

University of
Kent